JESUS SAID, “I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE no one comes to the Father except through me” (Jn 4:6).

“DEAR CHILDREN, WITH A MOTHERLY LOVE AND PATIENCE, I AM LOOKING AT YOUR CEASELESS WANDERING AND HOW LOST YOU ARE. THAT IS WHY I AM WITH YOU. I DESIRE TO HELP YOU TO, FIRST, FIND AND COME TO KNOW YOURSELF (REPENT); SO THAT THEN YOU WOULD BE ABLE TO RECOGNIZE AND TO ADMIT EVERYTHING THAT DOES NOT PERMIT YOU TO GET TO KNOW THE LOVE OF THE HEAVENLY FATHER, HONESTLY AND WHOLEHEARTEDLY.

PRAY THAT SINNERS WOULD BECOME AWARE OF THEIR SINS AND REPENT SINCERELY!

DEAR CHILDREN! When you accept the way of the cross, you will differ from those who have not come to know the love of the Heavenly Father—who listen to him but do not understand Him †—who do not walk with Him and have not come to know Him. I desire for you to come to know the truth of my Son and to be my apostles; that, as God’s children, you may rise above the human way of thinking and seek God’s way of thinking †” (Med. 12/2/13).

JESUS ASKED HIS 12 APOSTLES PRIVATELY, "Who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "The Christ, the Messiah, the Son of the Living God!" Jesus replied, "God has blessed you, Simon Peter, for my Father in heaven has revealed this to you. You are Peter, a living stone, and upon this rock I will build my church; and all the powers of hell will not prevail against it. I give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever doors you lock on earth will be locked in heaven; and whatever doors you open on earth will be opened in heaven!" Then he warned them not to tell anyone he was the Christ †.

"COME TO HIM THE LIVING STONE—REJECTED † BY MEN BUT CHOSEN BY GOD—YOU ARE ALSO LIVING STONES, BEING BUILT INTO HIS CHURCH. TO YOU WHO BELIEVE †, THIS STONE IS PRECIOUS; BUT TO THOSE WHO DO NOT BELIEVE, † IS A STUMBLING STONE BECAUSE THEY WILL NOT LISTEN TO OR OBEY GOD'S WORD" (1 Pet. 2/card 22).

From then on Jesus began to explain to his 12 apostles: "The Son of Man—the Christ—must go to Jerusalem, suffer and be killed †; and then on the third day, he will be raised to life!" Peter took him aside and rebuked him, saying, "This will never happen." But Jesus, rebuking him, said, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block; you do not have in mind the things of God."

To the crowd Jesus said: "To be a follower of mine, you must deny yourself and take up your cross † daily and follow me. Whosoever will save his life will lose it; but whosoever will lose † his life for my sake will save it. What does a man profit if he gains the world and loses his soul? If anyone is ashamed of me † and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father's glory. Some standing here will not die before they see him coming in his kingdom (glory)."

Eight days later, Jesus took Peter, John, and James up a mountain, where he was transfigured and they saw his glory. His face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the Light. Moses and Elijah appeared, talking about his imminent death †. A voice from a cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" Jesus told them to tell no one until he had been raised from the dead; but they did not understand him †. Lk. 16:13 to 17:13

As the time approached for him to be crucified † and received into heaven, Jesus set out for Jerusalem with an iron will. He appointed 72 disciples, sending them ahead of him in pairs to every town where he was about to go, instructing them: "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few; so pray to the Lord of the harvest (the Father) to send out workers to help you in his harvest field. He who listens to you listens to me; he who rejects you rejects me; he who rejects me rejects the Father who sent me." The 72 returned, rejoicing, "Lord, the demons submit to us in YOUR NAME!" Lk. 10

An expert in the law asked Jesus, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" "What is written in the law?" Jesus replied. The expert answered: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind; and Love your neighbor as yourself." "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied, "do this and you will live." But the expert wanted to justify himself for his lack of love for certain people, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus told him this parable:

"A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him, and left him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the road; and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he saw him, passed by on the other side.

Jews and their half-brothers the Samaritans were hostile to each other. Samaria today is the home of Hamas—the Palestinian Liberation Organization.

"Then a Samaritan came by on the road; and when he saw the man, he had mercy on him. He bandaged his wounds and then put the man on his donkey, took him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will repay you for any extra expense you may have.' Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him." Jesus said, "Go and do likewise." Lk. 10:25-37

Peter asked Jesus, "How many times must I forgive my brother?" Jesus replied: "The kingdom of heaven is like a king. When one of his large debtors couldn't pay, the king ordered him and his family sold to repay it. The man begged, 'Be patient with me and I will repay all.' The king, filled with pity, forgave his debt. But the man went out to one who owed him little, grabbed him by the throat and demanded repayment. This man begged for more time; but the man had him jailed. When the king heard of it, angered, he said to the man, 'When you asked me, I forgave you a large debt, shouldn't you have mercy on others?' Then he jailed him until he paid his debt in full. This is how my Heavenly Father will treat you unless you forgive your brother from the heart." Mt. 18:21-35

Jesus was teaching in Martha's home. Her sister Mary was listening to his words; but Martha was distracted about the meal preparations. She came to Jesus, "Lord, my sister has left me to do all the work; tell her to help me!" Jesus replied, "Martha, you are worried about many things, but only one thing is needed. Mary has chosen what is better and it will not be taken from her." Lk. 10:38-41

As the crowds increased, Jesus said, "This wicked generation ask for a sign, but none will be given except the sign of Jonah †, who was three days and nights in a whale's belly. The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment of this generation, condemning them; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now one greater than Solomon is here." Lk. 11:29-31

In Jerusalem, half-way through the fall Feast of Tabernacles, Jesus stood in the temple courts, proclaiming: "I AM the Light of the world, whoever follows † me will have the Light of life!" Then at the winter Feast of Dedication, he declared: "I and the Father are one!" The leaders tried to stone him for calling God his Father—this made him equal with God! Jn. 7:2,14; 8:12; 10:22-31

Lazarus, the brother of Mary and Martha became sick to death. They sent word to Jesus, "Lord, the one you love is sick." He replied, "This sickness will not end in death; it is for God's glory so that God's Son may be glorified through it." He waited two days, then said to his disciples, "Lazarus is dead and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. Let us go to him in Bethany." Bethany was two miles from Jerusalem; so when the disciples heard this, they said, "Rabbi, a short while ago the Jews tried to stone you there." Thomas said, "Let us go and die there with him!"

When they arrived in Bethany, Lazarus was dead. Martha heard he was coming and ran out to meet him. Mary was home with the many Jews from Jerusalem who had come to comfort them. Martha said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask." Jesus replied, "Your brother will rise again!" Martha said, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life! He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die! Do you believe this?" "Yes, Lord!" she answered, "I believe you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world!"

CHRIST: MESSIAH, MERCIFUL KING-DELIVER, HOLY ANOINTED ONE, SON OF MAN

Martha went back to the house and told Mary. The Jews followed them to Jesus and then to the tomb, where he ordered the stone to be taken away. But Martha said, "Lord, by this time he stinks; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" When the stone was removed, Jesus said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me." Then he called in a loud voice: "Lazarus, come out!" Lazarus came out still wrapped in linen!

The Jews told the chief priest, who called a meeting of the Sanhedrin: "This man is performing miraculous signs. If we let him go on, everyone will believe in him, then the Romans will take away our place (job security) and nation (national security threat). Then they plotted to take his life! Jn. 11

In spring, when Passover was near, Jesus sent his disciples to get him a certain colt that had never been ridden. The disciples put their cloaks on the colt and Jesus rode triumphal into Jerusalem on the way to the Cross! The crowd spread their cloaks and branches on the road, shouting: "HOSANNA! BLESSED IS THE KING WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!" Mt. 21
