

REMEMBERING YOU ARE AN APOSTLE OF THE REVELATION

Next her vision revealed she would be involved in a global awakening. She would discover the Insights and reunited with one of many groups—apostles of the revelation—that would gravitate together all over the world and would remember who they are and what they intended to do! They would shatter the polarization of Fear! Maya was united with the intense light and Redfield sensed that her personal vision of what she intended to do with this birth was enveloped within a larger vision, encompassing the whole history and future of humankind. She could see the full expanse of where humanity had been and where it was intentionally going. When the vision ended, Maya's soul group intensified their energy and appeared as a large whitish swirl of moving amber, drawing its intensity and love from the bright light. Maya's parents embraced, and at the moment of orgasm, a whitish-green energy flowed from the light, passing (resonating) through Maya and her soul group, entering the couple. Wil and Redfield watched as Maya's cells uniquely formed.

Wil, excited, explained, "We witnessed the process of Maya's birth that is held in the memory of her soul group. We saw that sexual union is a holy moment in which a part of Heaven flows to Earth, uniquely forming us! Apparently, before we are born, each of us experiences a Birth Vision of what our life can be and what we intend to do." Redfield said, "Based on what Maya told me, her vision was more ideal than what really happened. Her mother never understood her, and her father was so aloof she never knew what he was researching until after he died." Wil said, "The vision is an ideal guide, what our highest self intends to happen if we follow our intuitions perfectly. When we have an intuition or dream and follow their guidance, events transpire that feel coincidental or familiar, the events seem destined, like eternal truths. When we have an intuition of a possible future, we're getting flashes of a memory of our Birth Vision, what we intended to be doing with our lives at that particular point. It may not be exact, because we have free will, but when something happens that is familiar to our original vision, we feel more alive, inspired, because we recognize that we are on the path we intended."

Redfield asked, "How does our soul group fit in?" Wil explained, "They share in our Birth Vision, follow us through life, and afterward stay with us during our Life Review. They act as a reservoir of our memories, maintaining the knowledge of who we are. When we're in the Afterlife, and one of them is born, we act in the same way toward them. Redfield asked, "Do soul groups give us intuitions and directions?" "No, they come from a higher connection with the divine. The group sends us extra energy, uplifting our vibration to help us remember what we have forgotten, our Birth Vision. Maya is part of a special group of seven apostles of the revelation come back. A group able to remember some kind of larger vision that's behind our individual intentions, a remembrance that is necessary if we are to dispel the Fear." Then an ear-shattering sound sent Redfield back through the tunnel and he landed on the rock!

DO NOT FORGET MARY SAID: "YOU ALL CARRY SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL WITHIN YOU." THIS IRIDESCENT BEAUTY IS OUR LIVING ENERGY—OUR UNIQUE SPIRITUAL NATURE, FLOWING FROM HEAVEN. INSIGHT 3 REVEALED THAT THE BEAUTIFUL COLORS TRANSFORM WITH OUR THOUGHTS AND INTENSIONS. SOME ARGUE THAT THE EUCHARIST IS TRANSFORMED INTO THE BEAUTIFUL LIVING NATURE OF CHRIST'S BODY BY REMEMBERING HIM WITH PURIFIED THOUGHTS AND INTENSIONS. DO NOT FORGET THAT JESUS ASKED US TO REMEMBER HIM IN THE EUCHARIST—THAT FOR OUR SAKE HE DIED, RESURRECTED, AND IS COMING ANEW. TO SPREAD LOVE AND PEACE TO THOSE LIVING IN FEAR, REMEMBER THEM WITH PURIFIED THOUGHTS AND INTENSIONS DURING THE EUCHARIST. THIS TRANSFORMS THE ENERGY SWIRLING AROUND THEM, SHATTERING THE FEAR. PERHAPS THIS REMEMBERING IS THE KEY TO THE GLOBAL AWAKENING OF THE APOSTLES OF THE REVELATION—THE COMMON INTENTION THEY CAME TO DO! (CARD 38).

GATHER THE SHATTERED CROSSES—BE APOSTLES OF THE REVELATION!

THE TENTH INSIGHT by James Redfield (1996) takes place at sacred openings between Heaven and Earth that are located in a valley in the Appalachian mountains. He was there looking for his missing friend Charlene when his friend Wil appeared from an opening in the Afterlife Dimension. Together in the Afterlife they observed the death and Life Review of John Donald Williams. Williams, one of a group of seven apostles that had come back to help reveal and resolve the Fear, had failed in his Birth Vision, having forgotten what he came here intending to do (ch. 1, 2/card 53).

Later while searching for Charlene, Redfield ran into a journalist, Joel Lipscomb, whose faith had been shattered. He was a sign of the times, a person filled with Fears about the economy and future of the world. He questioned the purpose of life and the existence of a God who would design a place where men's sin and corruption is permitted to go on. He felt like he was carrying a heavy cross on his shoulders. After parting ways, Redfield, fleeing from suspicious vehicles, fell, injuring his ankle. Coincidentally, a doctor, Maya Ponder, saw him fall. She was an apostle of love and revealed a new way to think about accidents, illnesses, and healings. First identify our Fears, then use the energy of love and prayer, and last and most important is to remember what we came here intending to do (ch. 3/card 54). The following is an abridgement of chapter 4—Remembering:

THE UNIQUE
OUR DREAMS

Redfield, while waiting for Maya to return in the morning, began to remember the dream he had and that his friend Wil was in it. They had become separated after watching Williams' Life Review because Redfield could not maintain his vibration level in the Afterlife dimension after hearing an ear-shattering sound. He had traveled back to the pool in the valley amid a tunnel of colors. Later that morning he notice a large rock next to a stream, like the one in his dream. He sat on the rock and began to recall his dream, it had a blue field and he remembered Wil's position in it. As he maintained the image, he began streaking through a tunnel of colors and stopped in a environment pale blue and luminous. Wil was there. "Where are we?" he asked. Wil, excited, said, "In a level where dreams take place! Tell me what happened to you when you went back through the tunnel?"

Redfield told him how he ran into Joel and about his Fears and forecast of environmental and civil collapse, and about his encounter with Maya and her healing procedures, and how she revealed that we need to look deeply into ourselves and remember why we are here. Wil replied, "Joel is a sign of the times, voicing well the Fear a lot of people believe is happening. The Insights say that as the spiritual renaissance progresses, it must overcome a polarization of Fear. Perhaps Maya's idea of healing holds the key to dealing with the Fear.

"The synchronicity of your encounters is uniquely revealing the Tenth Insight. First, you ran into David, who revealed that the Tenth Insight was about an understanding of the spiritual renaissance happening. It is attained by grasping our relationship to the Afterlife dimension, by clarifying our intuitions (thoughts and intentions) and maintaining them in our minds. Then we each can see our own synchronistic path in a fuller way. Maintaining our intuitions,  our mental images, is the operative mode in this life as well as the Afterlife. It is the way we move into alignment with the Afterlife dimension. Next, together we watched Williams' Life Review and saw him agonize over not remembering what he intended to do. He was suppose to come together with a group of seven to help reveal the Fear that is threatening our spiritual awakening but failed in the mission of his Birth Vision. He warned that we have to understand the Fear in order to do something about it. Then we got separated and you ran into Joel, who voiced the Fear, and Maya revealed a new way of healing by helping people work through Fear blocks with the energy of love and prayer, and by prodding their memory of a truth they've forgotten—why they're on the planet! This remembering has to be the key!"

Then a group of souls appeared and a hologram scene played with Joel at the center. Wil, interpreting it, said: "It was a dream about a war and Joel was fleeing a bomb-ravaged city, thinking only of his own survival. He climbed a mountain, then looking back he remembered that his orders were to meet a group of soldiers and supply a secret part to a new device that would make the enemy's weapons inactive. He failed to show up and the soldiers and the city were destroyed. When we dream, we unconsciously travel to this level and synchronistically reunite with our soul group. They help jog our memory of what we really intended to do in our current situation, clarifying how to handle it. Interpret dreams by superimposing the plot of the dream against the real situations facing us in life. Joel's dream came through in a garbled, symbolic fashion because he was resistant, less open, so his memory was fuzzy and the message was fashioned in the symbolism of war, conveying to him that in his Birth Vision he intended to stay and help reveal the problem in the valley, and that if he ran away, he would regret it."

THE UNIQUE
OUR SOUL GROUPS

Suddenly they moved into a place of rich green light. Beautiful amber waves circulated around them, which became souls, full of love. Redfield could pick up on their knowledge and realized they were all associated with Maya. The souls were ecstatic, they knew she had recently experienced a Sixth Insight revelation—she understood the life preparation her parents had provided for her, and was on the verge of remembering why she had been born and what she intended to do (card 39/Sixth Insight).

Redfield heard the ear-shattering sound of the hum again and began losing his energy and tried to boost it by attempting to connect with the energy of the souls, but they moved away. Wil explained, "These souls won't allow you to mistake them for the divine source. You must  go within and connect directly to God's energy." The souls returned and a holographic image appeared, showing Maya in the 19th-century war in the valley. She was there with a large, richly-dressed man. She felt that stopping the conflict was just a matter of remembering how to attain enough energy. It could be done if the right people came together (resonated) with a common intention. Then the vision moved to her failed attempt to speak with the army leaders and then to the wilderness, where she and the man were killed (ch. 2/card 53).

As Wil and Redfield watched, Maya awakened after her death in the 19th century into the Afterlife and had a Life Review. She was appalled at how single-mindedly she had pursued her goal of stopping the war. It wasn't the right time. We had not remembered enough of the Afterlife knowledge to accomplish such a feat. After her Life Review, she moved into a green environment and was surrounded by the group of souls associated with her, who also resembled her. Wil explained, "This is Maya's soul group. It's a group of souls with whom she resonates."

RESONATE: AN ECHO EFFECT PRODUCED WHEN THE NATURAL VIBRATION FREQUENCY OF A BODY IS GREATLY AMPLIFIED BY REINFORCING VIBRATIONS FROM OTHER BODIES AT THE SAME OR NEARLY THE SAME FREQUENCY.

As Maya was standing in front of an intense white light, surrounded by her soul group, she began to shift toward Earth again. She could see her perspective new parents and how her experiences with them would prepare her for a career in healing. Her mother had Fears about her own health and blamed the doctors, which would inspire Maya in her interest in the mind/body connection and the patient's responsibility in healing. Her father was a research scientists, whose head was filled with exotic biological questions, particularly about the relationship between inspiration and the immune system. She could see her birth to these parents would also be advantageous for them. She could help them both reach their intended direction, her mother to accept her personal role in avoiding illness, and her father to overcome his tendency to hide from others and live in his head. She saw people arriving in her life at just the right time to guide her, and her and a partner opening a clinic using a new healing model.
