WITNESS A VISION OF A FUTURE OF PEACE OF THE HIGHEST ORDER!

Overcome an Evil Vision With a Vision of Someone Confessing Their Sins!

THE TENTH INSIGHT by James Redfield takes place in a valley in the Appalachian mountains. Redfield was searching for his friend Charlene when he met David Lone Eagle, who told him about the Tenth Insight, the World Vision—a plan to unify us with our soul groups, ushering in a future of peace of the highest order! Through dimensional openings in the valley, Redfield with his friend Wil crossed over into the Afterlife and learned he was part of a group of seven, who shared a Birth Vision to bring in the World Vision. The group must also stop Feyman, a scientist, who built a generator in an underground bunker, trying to tie into Earth's electromagnetic field through the openings, which was causing earth tremors and fissures, and could potentially devastate the Earth and disrupt nine dimensions. Redfield and two other members of the group, Maya and Curtis, were hiding from Feyman in a cave and saw Charlene held at gunpoint by his guard. Curtis overcame the guard and tied him up. By uniting their intentions, the four raised their energy and united with their soul groups, who hold the memory of our birth plans. A holograph of the World Vision formed around them. They saw a polarization—a fear—dividing the Earth, keeping it from God's plans for unity and peace. They witnessed that if prayer groups formed, the polarization would ease, moving Earth into a future of peaceful dialogue and technology. After a tremor struck, they went to the underground bunker to stop Feyman, but were captured. When another tremor struck, they escaped and met up heading toward the waterfalls. Again they united with their soul groups and witnessed the World Vision (Ch. 1-9/cards 53-61). Holding the Vision is the final chapter.

HOLDING THE VISION

As the holograph of the World Vision of peace of the highest order surrounded them, a hawk (dove) flew overhead, then a rabbit (lamb) hopped in front of them and a bobcat (lion) sat beside it, as if signaling something! Suddenly a narrow fissure caused by the experiment was coming toward them. Maya urged, “We have witnessed enough of the planned Vision to stop it! Don't let the Vision go! Hold it!” They continued to hold the peaceful Vision, uniting their energy toward Feyman, as if holding their intention as a giant wall against his intrusion, imaging his group being pushed back, fleeing in terror! But the fissure kept heading toward them and they lost their concentration and ran in different directions.

Redfield made his way up a hill then down into the canyon and began walking north toward the waterfalls. Suddenly David was behind him. He had been watching them from the hill. “Where do you think the others will go?” he asked. “I think they'll go to the waterfalls.” As they walked Redfield confided his story of crossing into the Afterlife and learning about the World Vision of unity and peace. David said that he too had crossed over and that as he watched them from the hill the World Vision also surrounded him. Redfield asked, “Why couldn't we stop Feyman?” David explained, “A key aspect of the Vision is to not just experience it, it's how we project this Vision of the future, how we hold it for the rest of humanity. That's what the Tenth Insight is really about. You held the Vision for Feyman in the wrong way, imaging him as an enemy. To help him wake up, pray, imagining him as a friend!”

Suddenly an owl screeched overhead. David said, “He's signaling to the others that we are not far away. Does anyone in the group know the animal signs?” Redfield remembered Maya had mentioned following the sounds of birds when she found them in the cave. “Perfect,” David said, “she's the physician you said uses visualization in her work; let's do what she does and pray, let's visualize that she remembers the gift of the animals.” Redfield inquired, “What is the gift of the animals?” David explained, “Native American's believe when an animal shows up in our lives, it is a coincidence of the highest order, holding a special message. An animal's attributes reveal what attributes we must call upon in ourselves to handle the circumstances we face. The way they show up in our lives is synchronistic, mysterious, and instructional.

"THE FATHER
ASPECTS OF
US IN CHRIST
BEFORE THE CREATION OF
THE WORLD!"
(EPH. 1: 4)

"We believe animals reveal an aspect of ourselves we need to get in touch with. Aspects we developed when we, in a sense, were those animals during the course of evolution, but have lost." Redfield recalled the holographic image the group witnessed, revealing that an aspect of each of the souls in the Afterlife and a part of all of humanity had lived through the long, slow process of the evolution of the Earth, and said, "You're speaking of the way life progressed forward, species by species, not reincarnation?" (card 61). David explained, "We believe human consciousness moved (in Christ) through each animal as the Earth evolved, as an important aspect of developing our complete spiritual consciousness. When an animal shows up, it means we are ready to integrate its consciousness into our awareness again. We also believe that to completely develop spiritual consciousness, instead of dehumanizing different cultures, we need to integrate the rich diversity of human thought, represented by our various beliefs. Each culture holds a slightly different worldview or awareness, and it takes the best aspects of all cultures, integrated together to realize that we're not so far away in our beliefs to reach the peace of a spiritual whole."

The owl screeched again and David insisted, "Can we pray now?" Redfield responded, "Do you want to pray or visualize?" David explained, "Another key aspect of the Tenth Insight is about understanding the essence of real prayer. Every religious tradition assumes a form of prayer. When we pray in the correct fashion, we are not asking God to do something. God is inspiring us to act in his place to enact his will on Earth. We are the emissaries of the divine on this plane. True prayer is the method, the visualization, that God expects us to use to discern his will and implement it in the physical dimension. His kingdom come, his will be done, on Earth, as it is in Heaven. In this sense, every thought, every expectation, all of what we visualize happening in the future, is a prayer, and tends to create that very future. But no thought or desire or fear is as strong as a vision that is in alignment with the divine. That's why bringing in the World Vision and holding it is so important: SO WE WILL KNOW WHAT TO PRAY FOR, WHAT FUTURE TO VISUALIZE."

"I AM CALLING
YOU: PRAY FOR PEACE!"

Redfield asked, "How do we help Maya become aware of the owl?" "What did she tell you about healing?" David inquired. "She said we should visualize patients remembering what they intended to do with their lives but hadn't done. Real healing springs from a renewed image of what one wants to do once health is regained. When they remember, then we can also join them in holding this specific plan." David urged, "Let's do the same, hopefully, she'll remember her original intention to follow the sound of the owl." Together they imagined Maya awakening to what she was suppose to do. Then the owl screeched again and David said, "Let's follow!"

Maya also followed the sound of the owl and the group met up at the waterfalls. Curtis introduced David to Maya and Charlene. David said, "The presence of an owl signals that we have an opportunity to unite our energy and see through deceptions. If we avoid lashing out, projecting a fear vision, we can, like the owl, cut through darkness to hold a Vision of a higher order." Charlene realized David was the fifth member of the group who were to bring in the World Vision. Suddenly they felt another tremor and saw Feyman and his men on the hill above them. Curtis shouted, "We've got to get out of here!" But Maya insisted, "No, we can stop him!" Together they raised their energy and united with their soul groups and saw the hologram of the fearful polarization occurring in our time, then of the peaceful future of the highest order that would follow if special prayer groups formed and learned how to intercede and project the Vision. Another tremor shook, but Maya urged, "Hold the Vision!"

TO HOLD THE VISION FOR OTHERS TO WAKE UP AND BE ALIGNED WITH GOD'S WILL, IMAGINE A GOOD ASPECT OF THEM WHILE INTERCEDING. PRAY A ROSARY FOR THEM TO REMEMBER THAT IN THEIR BIRTH VISION THEY INTENDED TO NOT HOLD ON TO THEIR SELFISH AND EVIL ASPECTS, BUT PLANNED TO CONFESS THEM, CHANGE THEIR LIFE AND DISCOVER PEACE OF THE HIGHEST ORDER IS NOT FAR AWAY!

HOLDING THE VISION FOR OTHERS TO REMEMBER TO CONFESS THEIR SINS!

Redfield imagined the World Vision as a force of energy, emanating out from their group in all directions and pushing Feyman back, defeating the energy of his evil fear vision. Then a tree crashed to the ground and Curtis shouted, "It's still not working!" David said, "It's because we're imaging Feyman as an enemy, trying to push him back. This is strengthening him because he has something to fight against. Instead of fighting him with the Vision, we have to envision him and his men in the Vision." Redfield had witnessed Feyman's Birth Vision while in the Afterlife and said, "He intended to break through his evil aspects, his selfish need for power, and bring in safe technology. He is actually the sixth member of our group!" Maya instructed, "We have to hold the vision for him to remember what good he is here to do, that helps him break his fear vision, his trance."

Suddenly the soul groups of Feyman and his two guards appeared. Maya urged, "Visualize them remembering their Birth Visions, the good they intended to do, held in the memory of their soul groups." The swirling, amber energy of the soul groups passed through Feyman and his men. Then the white light of angels hovered over them, emanating in all directions. Finally the tremors stopped and one of the guards left. Feyman was conducting the experiment from his keyboard, but it wasn't working. He had tracked the group, realizing they came to the waterfalls because it was the location of the dimensional opening of the highest order. Then he threatened them with a gun. Charlene said, "You didn't come here to do this." He ordered the other guard to shoot them, but he refused and left. Redfield insisted, "You were born to prevent this destruction." Feyman seemed to be remembering something, but then angrily he said, "I don't know what you're doing! There are other forests! I'll make this generator work! You're not taking this away from me!" Then, refusing to confess his sins, he turned and ran!

"YOU WILL HAVE A NEED TO WITNESS!"

Relieved, the five made their way to the hill above the underground bunker. They saw the Forest Service, FBI, and Sheriff below, but Feyman and his people left. David said, "I need to go down there and tell them the story." Curtis had worked with Feyman and the technology and unwillingly decided he needed to go to explain it. Then Maya insisted, "I need to go too! I'm a local physician and people know me, you will need a third witness." Curtis decided he needed to bring the guard he left tied up. Redfield and Charlene headed for town. On their way they met Joel, a newspaper reporter whom Redfield met earlier. Joel feared that evil could not be overcome and would result in civil disorder and unrest. Redfield inquired, "I thought you were leaving the valley." Joel said, "I was but I had a dream that help me awaken and realize that I needed to stay and help (card 55). I went to the Sheriff, Maya had sent him a note, so we came here together. I'm going down there so they'll know the press is aware of those three witnesses." Charlene realized he was the seventh member of the group.

Wil appeared from the Afterlife and had witnessed everything. He said: "The Tenth Insight is about living in optimism, witnessing a Vision of a future of peace and unity in the face of growing pessimism, divisiveness and evil around us. If enough prayer groups form, we will discover peace is not far away! To resolve the polarization, everyone must watch their thoughts and expectations, and stop imaging others as enemies, dehumanizing them, adding to the fear and polarization. We are all born with good birth intentions and can remember to leave evil, change our life and do them. By praying, holding this vision for others, peace will spread like a contagion. We have a choice to live in peace, holding the Vision that humanity is awakening to a higher order or live in a fear vision, thinking we cannot overcome evil. Our expectation is a prayer that goes out as a force that tends to bring about the end we envision!"
