

JESUS SPEAKS THE TRUTH AND HIS ENEMIES PLOT TO KILL HIM †

At home in Capernaum Jesus taught in the synagogue on the Sabbath. A man with a withered hand came. The scribes and Pharisees observed that Jesus saw him and wondered if he would break the law and heal him on the Sabbath. Jesus, knowing their thoughts, called the man and said, "You scribes and Pharisees, is it a crime to save a life on the Sabbath? If you had a sheep that fell into a pit, would you do wrong to save it? Or would it please God to let it suffer for another day? Are sheep of greater value than men? The law of God is written on the rock of Right; Justice wrote the law; and Mercy was the pen." Then Jesus spoke to the man, "Raise your hand!" When he raised his hand and it was restored, the Pharisees were enraged. They met in secret with the Herodians, who had sentenced John the Baptist to the exalted sacrifice of beheading, and began to plot how to bring about Jesus' † death; but they were afraid to accuse him publicly because of the people.

JESUS TEACHES HIS 12 APOSTLES HOW TO PRAY TO SAVE THE WORLD

The Sermon on the Mount begins: The next morning on a mountain by the sea, Jesus taught the twelve how to pray to save themselves and the world. He said, "Prayer is the deep communion of the soul with God. When you pray, do not deceive yourselves as do the hypocrites, who love to stand in the synagogues and pour out many words and feelings to please the ears of men. When you pray, go to the closet of your soul and in the holy silence pray with words, feelings, merciful love and sacrifice. You do not need to repeat many words, just say plainly: Our Father-God who art in heaven; holy is thy Name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven. Give us this day our needed bread. Help us forget the debts that other people owe to us, so that all our debts may be discharged. Shield us from the tempter's snares that are too great for us to bear; and when they come give us the strength to overcome them!" Then he taught: "If you would be discharged from all the debts you owe to God and man, the debts that you incurred by wilfully transgressing the law, you must pass by the debts of every man; for as you deal with other men, God will deal with you. Fasting and giving of alms are also functions of the silence of the soul. God walks within the silence, and his blessings rest on every effort of the soul."

JESUS TEACHES HIS 12 APOSTLES, HIS "LIGHT-BEARERS," HOW TO REIGN WITH CHRIST

They climbed to the mountain top, where Jesus said, "You apostles are the twelve pillars of the church and the light-bearers. You are to shine with the full brilliance of the sun of life. You, chalices of God's pure love, will soon go alone to preach the gospel of the King; first spread it to the Jews and then to all the world. You cannot drive men to the King with a scourge; draw them with love that lives, love that is helpful. Do not be afraid to speak the truth and witness love with your life. Say, 'God's kingdom is at hand: Worthy are the merciful; mercy will be shown to them. Worthy are they who gain mastery of self; they have the key of power which gives life. Bless your persecutors; deal in mercy with doers of wrong; do not rejoice over fallen foes; for as you help men rise from the depth of sin, so God will help you.' Shepherds are called to walk in Holy Breath to light the world, as a city on a hill, its light shines afar. When you stand on the hills of life, men see your light and imitate your works and honor God. You, the lamps of God, must not stand in the shade of earth's illusions, but in the open, high upon life's stand. I did not come to nullify the law, but to fulfill it. Heaven and earth will pass away; but the Word of God's pure love cannot pass until it is fulfilled. Whoever teaches men to disregard the law is a debtor and cannot see God's face until he pays his debt by sacrifice of life. But all who listen to God's voice and keep his law of loving others will reign with Christ!"

JESUS SPEAKS THE TRUTH AND SPREADS GOD’S LOVE TO EVERYONE

Jesus and his twelve apostles went to the fountain of Bethesda, during a feast in Jerusalem at which time it was believed an angel came down and poured healing virtue into the pool and those who bathed first were made whole. Jesus said to a man who was stricken, unable to move, “Brother, do you want to be healed?” He replied, “I desire to be healed, but cannot get to the water first.” Jesus said, “What God would send an angel to potentize this pool for only a favored few? It is not my Father-God, for he deals just the same with everyone. One has no better chance in heaven’s healing fountain than another. The fount of health is in your soul; it has a locked door; the key to unlock it is faith; and everyone can have this key, unlock the door, and plunge into the healing fount, and be made whole.” The man, feeling hope, said, “Give me this key of faith.” Jesus said, “According to you faith, it shall be done: Arise, take up your bed and walk.” The man rose up and walked away, praising God! When the people asked him who made him whole, he replied, “A stranger at the pool just spoke a Word and I was well.” Later Jesus saw him in the temple and warned him: “Now that you are made whole, sin no more or something worse may fall on you.”

When the priests heard Jesus healed on the Sabbath, they warned him: “The law forbids us to work, healing on the Sabbath.” Jesus replied, “My Father works on Sabbath days; he sends rain to make things grow. If it is lawful for things to grow on the Sabbath, then it surely is not wrong to help a stricken man.” The lead priest charged, “This fellow is a menace to our nation and our laws, he makes himself to be a son of God, he should † die!” Jesus retorted, “Where did Adam come from? Did he have a father or did he just fall from a star? Moses said he came from God. If he did, was he God’s son? We are all children of Adam, the son of God; if not, who are we?” The priest left. Jesus said, “Everyone is a son of God; and if you live a life of love, you can recognize God’s works and in his Sacred Omnific Name perform them. Man is God’s chalice and delegate on earth, here to speak the Word of love for him; to heal the sick, control the elements, and raise the dead; but he must conquer the passions of the lower self. To love God, love all men in him, for God and man are one, as father and son are one.”

THE RESURRECTION! SPEAK THE WORD WHICH GIVES LIFE!

Jesus spoke these words of truth about the resurrection: “The hour has come! The dead will hear the voice of man and live (resurrect) because the son of man is son of God. You are all locked up within a tomb; there is no deeper death than ignorance and unbelief. But someday all will hear God’s voice made plain by voice of man and live. All will know that they are sons of God, and by the Sacred Omnific Word can do the works of God. When you have come to life—come to recognize that you are sons of God—you who lived a life of right, of love, mercy, and sacrifice, will open your eyes on fields of life. But you who love the ways of sin, in the resurrection will stand before a judgment bar and be condemned to pay the debts you owe to men and to yourselves. Whatsoever you have done amiss must be performed again and again until you reach the stature of the perfect man (card 58). In due time the lowest and the highest will arise to walk in light.”

JESUS SPEAKS THE TRUTH ABOUT CONTROLLING THE ELEMENTS!

Lazarus was at the feast and Jesus and his twelve apostles went to his home. Suddenly, they heard a cry, “The village is on fire!” They all rushed out into the streets and saw many homes in flames. A mother was calling out for help; her infant was caught in an upper room. Jesus, with a voice that made the spirits of the fire pale and tremble, said, “Peace, peace, be still!” Then he walked through the flames, climbed the falling stairs and rescued the infant. Not a trace of fire was on him or the infant. Then, raising his hand, he rebuked the spirits of the fire, commanding them to cease their awful work and be at rest. It was as if the waters of the sea poured out and the flames ceased. Jesus said, “Man was not made for fire, but fire was made for man. When man comes to himself and recognizes that he is son of God, and knows that in himself lies all the powers of God, then he is a master mind and all the elements will hear his voice and do his will. Two sturdy asses bind the will of man; their names are Fear and Unbelief. When these are caught and turned aside, the will of man will know no bounds; then man has but to speak and it is done!”

LOVE, MERCY, SACRIFICE—RECOGNIZE IT, LIVE IT, SPREAD IT!

TO HEAR GOD’S VOICE, HEAR THE VOICE OF YOUR FELLOWMAN! At Lazarus’ home a little girl came, laying her hand on Jesus, she said plainly, “Please, Master Jesus, hear me. My father is a drunk; my mother toils day and night and when she brings her wages home, he squanders every cent on drink and we are left hungry. Please come and touch his heart.” Jesus went to the wretched home and found the father plainly drunk in bed. He said, “My brother man, made in the image of our Father-God, will you come with me? Your neighbors, who lost all they had in the fire, are in sore distress and men must help rebuild their homes. The two went to view the wrecks. They heard mothers and children crying in the streets. Jesus said, “My friend, here is a work of love for you to do, lead the way by helpfulness and sacrifice.” The spark of hope that had so long smoldered in him, fanned into a flame, fueling a desire to use his skills to help others. He spread the word and others came to help rebuild the homes of the homeless. Then, recognizing the condition of his own home, the pride of manhood filled his soul, he said, “This wretched den will be a home.” He worked hard and everybody helped. Love reigned in his family and he never drank again.

On the Sabbath Jesus and the twelve were walking through a field of wheat and the apostles threshed out the grain and ate. When the Pharisees saw it, they said to Jesus, “The twelve do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath.” Jesus said, “When David and his men were hungry, he went into the house of God, took the presence bread and gave it to his men to eat. The needs of men are higher than the law of sacrifice. The Sabbath day was made for man, man was not made to fit the Sabbath. Man is son of God and under the eternal law of right, which is the highest law, he may annul statute law. The law of sacrifice is man’s law; but in it we read that God desires that we live and spread love and mercy first, and recognize that mercy stands above all sacrificial law.” Then Jesus left for his home in Capernaum with the twelve.
