

RENOUNCE CARNAL LIFE AND DO THE WORKS OF HEAVEN FERVENTLY! A young man asked Jesus, "Master, What must I do to go to heaven?" Jesus witnessed, "To enter heaven you must keep God's commands." The man asked, "Which commands are you referring to?" Jesus said, "You shall not kill, steal, commit adultery or bear false witness, and you must love the true God with all your heart and love your neighbor as yourself." The man replied, "All these things I have done from my youth." Jesus said, "One thing you lack, your heart is fixed on earthly things, you are not free. Renounce all you have and fervently do the works of heaven by giving your money to the poor and come and follow me and you will go to heaven." The man was grieved for he was very rich and left in sorrow. Jesus said, "It is so hard for men with hoarded wealth to enter through the door into the kingdom of the soul. Those who trust in riches cannot trust in God and cannot come into heaven. It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a man with hoarded wealth to find the door leading to heaven. The rich must renounce their gold and the high must kiss the dust and God will save them."

GOD REWARDS THOSE WHO DO HIS WORKS BASED ON THEIR THOUGHTS AND INTENTS: Peter asked, "Lord, we have renounced all to follow you, what is our reward?" Jesus witnessed, "You who have left all to follow me to do God's works will come into a mysterious new a life, hid deep with Christ in God. You will sit with me on the throne of power and judge with me the tribes of Israel. He who conquers the carnal self and follows me through Christ will have a hundred fold of that which is the wealth of life on earth and in the world to come eternal life." Someone asked, "Master, does God bestow rewards as men bestow rewards?" Jesus said, "Men never really know the works other men have done. One man may seem to do a mighty work and be thought of by men as worthy of a great reward, while another man may seem to be a failure and is dishonored by men. Men do not really know the thoughts of the hearts of other men, only God knows. When life is done, God may reward with eternal life the man who fell beneath the pain and suffering of life, but turn away the man who was thought of as an idol in men's hearts. The reward of a man's works is based on his thoughts and the intents of his heart."

FAST AND PRAY FOR THEM TO OVERCOME TEMPTATIONS IN MARRIAGE: A Pharisee asked Jesus, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" Jesus said, "You should know, what does the law say?" The Pharisee replied, "The law provides that a man may divorce his wife." Jesus witnessed, "The hardness of the hearts of men induced God to make this provision, but from the first it was not so. God made a woman for a man, and they were one flesh. The higher law of heaven is that whoever puts away his wife, unless she is a courtesan, and takes another wife, commits adultery. The woman who leaves a man, unless he is a libertine and an adulterer, and then becomes another man's wife, commits adultery." Thomas asked, "What is adultery?" Jesus said, "When men and women harbor lustful thoughts and covet any other flesh, they are not truly one, not truly joined by God." Philip asked, "Are only a few truly joined by God as one?" Jesus said, "God knows the pure in heart, but those with lustful thoughts cannot truly be at one, neither can they truly be at one with God." Nathaniel asked, "Is it better to refrain from taking marriage vows?" Jesus said, "Men are not pure because they are unmarried, the man who lusts is an adulterer if he has a wife or not. I speak a heavenly mystery that you do not yet have the Christ's consciousness to comprehend: A eunuch is a man who does not lust; some men are born eunuchs, some men are made eunuchs by the power of men, but some are eunuchs made possible by the Holy Breath, who sets them free in God through Christ to live in a state of grace. He who is able to receive the truth I speak, let him receive it."

TO ENDURE PAIN AND SUFFERING HOPE IN JESUS—GOD, BORN OF GOD! The Seed of Eternal Life! Fast and Pray for Priests and the Consecrated!

“DEAR CHILDREN: Who could speak to you about the love and the pain of my Son better than I? I lived with Him, I suffered with Him. Living the earthly life, I felt pain because I was a mother. My Son loved the thoughts and works of the Heavenly Father, the true God. And, as He said to me, He came to redeem you. I hid my pain through love. But you, my children, you have numerous questions, you do not comprehend pain. You do not comprehend that through the love of God you need to accept pain and endure it. Every human being will experience it to a lesser or greater measure. But with peace in the soul and in a state of grace, hope exists—this is my Son, God, born of God! His words are the seed of eternal life, sown in good souls they bring numerous fruits. My Son bore the pain because He took your sins upon Himself. Therefore, you, my children, apostles of my love, you who suffer, know that your pain will become light and glory! My children, while you are enduring pain, while you are suffering, Heaven enters in you and  you give a piece of Heaven and much hope to all those around you” (Med. 9/2/17).

THE AQUARIAN GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST was transcribed by Levi H. Dowling from the Akashic Records. This card is part of an ongoing series, embellished with Mary's beautiful ongoing semimonthly messages from Medjugorje, which mirror the text, reflecting heaven and heavenly mysteries! The series began with her message on November 2, 2016 (card 63). During September many Christians celebrate Ember days, which mirror our Jewish brothers and sisters' celebration of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, days of renunciation, fasting and prayer. Section XVII: 140–143 “The Third Annual Epoch of the Christine Ministry of Jesus.” (The Mysterious Name/cards 79, 18)

HOPE IN JESUS BECOMES LIGHT AND GLORY! Jesus told his 12 apostles, whom he had called to renounce carnal life and had consecrated as a new priesthood to do works for the Heavenly Father in Christ's mysterious Name: “In 40 days we will go to Jerusalem, where I will accept and endure the altar the Heavenly Father has thought of to redeem men from their sins and will suffer, giving my life in willing  sacrifice for my brothers. Let us return to all the cities in Galilee to say farewell to all the true sons of God by faith.” On the Sabbath Jesus taught in a synagogue and two men brought a woman in on a cot. For 18 years she had been unable to get out of bed without help, suffering from a painful disease wherein she was bent down, unable to look up. Jesus, laying his hand on her, said, “Arise and be free from your infirmity!” When he spoke the mysterious heavenly Word, she stood up straight and, filled with joy and  light, began glorifying him! The ruling priest became enraged because Jesus had healed her on the Sabbath and could not look him in the face, but fervently censured the crowd, “Why do you break God's law by bringing your afflicted here to be healed on the Sabbath? This is a day of rest in which men may not work.” Jesus censured the priest, “You Pharisees, your thinking makes no sense. When you take an animal from its stall to feed it on the Sabbath, are you not working, breaking God's law? Your sister has suffered for 18 years and has come here in faith, hoping to be set free. Am I breaking God's law when I do his work on the Sabbath and break her bonds?” The priest said no more, but the people, filled with joy and light, gave glory  to Jesus after witnessing heaven's mystery, saying, “Behold the Christ—God, born of God!”

THE SEED OF ETERNAL LIFE: Then Jesus spoke these words on eternal life: “The kingdom of the Christ is like a seed you put in good soil, hoping it will grow and bear fruit. After many years of enduring bad weather, it bears numerous leaves and grows into a mighty shade tree. Then all those around it come to get a piece of the shade, resting under its heavenly leaves.”

“DEAR CHILDREN: I am calling you to be generous in renunciation, fasting and prayer for all those who are in temptation and are your brothers and sisters. In a special way I am imploring you to pray for priests and for all the consecrated, that they may love Jesus still more fervently; that the Holy Spirit may fill their hearts with joy; that  they may witness heaven and heavenly mysteries. Many souls are in sin because there are not those who sacrifice themselves and pray for their conversion. I am with you and am praying that your hearts may be filled with joy” (Med. 9/25/17; YOU/card 9).

FAST AND PRAY FOR PRIESTS AND THE CONSECRATED TO WITNESS HEAVEN'S MYSTERIES:

A Pharisee invited Jesus to a feast. It was the Sabbath and certain priests and lawyers came to get from Jesus' own lips words they could use to accuse him of a crime. Among the guests was a man who suffered from a dropsical disease. Jesus knew they came to accuse him of breaking the law by healing on the Sabbath and said, “You priests and lawyers, think about what you say, your brother is suffering in pain, shall I not, in God's own strength, call out the heavenly Word and heal him? If your horse fell into a pit on the Sabbath, would you not call out to your friends to help draw it out?” When Jesus spoke the mysterious Word, the man was healed  and, filled with joy and light, he gave glory to Jesus! But the Pharisees would not give him glory even though they had witnessed heaven's mystery that Jesus truly was God, born of God!

FAST AND PRAY FOR THEM TO OVERCOME TEMPTATIONS OF THE EGO SELF: Jesus, looking around at the Pharisee's guests, witnessed them striving to get the highest seats. He said, “You selfish men, why do you strive to take the highest seats? Show your host courtesy by taking a lower seat until he places you where he will. If you take a higher seat, he may bid you to move to a lower seat and then you will be humiliated. But if you take the lowest seat, then are honored by the host and asked to take a higher seat, you will be esteemed. This is a heavenly mystery: He who exalts himself will be abased, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

FAST AND PRAY FOR THEM TO SACRIFICE THEMSELVES FOR THOSE IN NEED: Then Jesus witnessed, “When you make a feast, do not make it for friends and family or the rich for they consider such a courtesy something they must repay. When you make a feast, invite those in need and you will be blessed for they can give nothing in return. Your reward will be a state of  peace in your soul and a heart filled with joy as you do God's work, helping those in need.”

FAST AND PRAY FOR THEM TO RENOUNCE THE TEMPTATIONS OF THE CARNAL LIFE: Then Jesus spoke a parable: “A wealthy man made a feast and sent his servants to bid his chosen ones to come. But none of them wanted to come because it met renouncing the things they were doing in life, so they each made excuses. The host, grieved, commanded his servants: “Fill my house with joy! Go into the streets and bring the poor and those in need!” When there was still room for more, he sent his armed men to bring people in by force until his house was full. Likewise, the true God has prepared a feast and sent his servants to the chosen sons of men, but they would not hear his call and come to the feast. So he sent his servants to the  strangers and the multitudes, but there was still room for more; then he will send his angels with mighty trumpet blast to compel men to come.” (Mysterious Feast of Mercy/card 74)

FAST AND PRAY FOR THEM TO FERVENTLY LOVE JESUS AND BE FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT:

Jesus witnessed to a crowd following him, “You men follow me for selfish gain. To gain the crown of eternal life you must renounce the carnal life and follow me with fervent love and be  disciples of the Holy Breath. Count the costs before you follow me, you must give up your selfish life and all you have.” The wealthy Pharisees laughed, scorning what he said. Jesus said, “You Pharisees justify your sins in men's sight, but God sees your wicked hearts. You priests know full well that whatever the carnal mind reveres is an abomination in God's sight.”
