

ACCORDING TO JESUS TO BE ACCEPTED BY GOD SHEPHERDS MUST ACCEPT ALL PEOPLE:

Jesus wanted to teach a lesson to the Pharisees following him. They were the shepherds entrusted by God to be spiritual fathers to his children, but they trusted in themselves and thought they were holier than all other people. He told them a parable: "Two men went into a synagogue, one was a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood up proudly and prayed: 'O God, I thank thee that I am not like all other people, who are adulterers and unjust extortioners like this tax collector. I fast two times a week and give tithes of all I get.' But the tax collector knelt and with his eyes down prayed: 'O Lord, be merciful to me. I am a sinner, unworthy in thy sight, and I am undone.' I tell you, the tax collector's prayers were accepted and he left justified, while the Pharisee went away condemned for everyone who exalts himself over others will be abased, but those who abase themselves will be accepted in God's sight."

SHEPHERDS MUST MINISTER TO ALL PEOPLE WILLINGLY WITH AN OPEN HEART: The mother of the apostles James and John, whom Jesus had called to be shepherds to God's children, asked Jesus, "Master, I know your kingdom is at hand, so I ask you for a favor, command that my two sons sit by your side on your throne." Jesus replied, "You do not know what you are asking." He said to the two, "Are you ready to drink the cup I will drink?" They replied, "We are ready!" Jesus said, "You will indeed drink of my cup, but I am not the judge of who will sit by my side on my throne. If you want to sit by me, keep the faith by living according to God's command to open your heart and serve and love your neighbors." When the other apostles heard that the two were seeking special favors, they became indignant. Jesus said, "It is hard for men to comprehend the nature of the kingdom of the soul. Rulership in heaven is not the same as rulership on earth. In the kingdoms of the world men of power exalt themselves and show their authority by ruling with an iron rule. But those who want to rule the sons of light in the kingdom of the soul are those who do not seek earthly power, but give their lives willingly in sacrifice for their brothers. Whoever would be great must minister to all people. The highest seat in heaven is at the feet of the lowest man on earth. I had glory with our Father-God before the worlds were made and yet I came to serve, minister and to abase myself for all men."

WORDS OF LIFE CAN ONLY BE SOWN IN OPEN HEARTS: Jesus and the twelve went to Jerusalem. A scribe asked him, "Are you the Messiah that the prophets said would come?" Jesus replied, "I have told you many times that no man can do the works I do and speak to you with words of life as I have, who did not come from God. My witness is what I have done and said. God calls and those whose ears are attuned to hearing the heavenly voice hear the call and believe in me because God testifies of me in their soul. You cannot hear the voice of God because your ears are closed. You cannot comprehend the works of God because your hearts are closed and full of self. You Pharisees with your lies try to snatch away the fold that God my Father has given to me, but you cannot for he is greater than all of you and he and I are one!" His words angered them and they picked up stones to kill him. Jesus said, "I have healed your sick and cast out your unclean spirits for which of these works do you desire to take my life?" They replied, "We are not stoning you for your works but for your blasphemous words. You are but a man and yet you say you are God!" Jesus retorted, "Your own prophet told you that you were gods. If he said that to those who simply heard the words of life, why do you accuse me of blasphemy when I say that I am God's son? If you do not believe my words, have faith in the works I do, then you will see the Father in these works and know that I dwell in the Father and he in me and we are one!" The Pharisees tried to stone him but Jesus disappeared!

PEACE BEGINS IN THE FAMILY WITH FORGIVENESS, LOVE AND MERCY!

Live According to Jesus' Words the Future of Your Soul Depends on It!

ANNIVERSARY MESSAGE: "DEAR CHILDREN: I am speaking to you as a mother—with simple words, but words filled with much love and concern for my children, who, through my Son, are entrusted to me. And my Son, who is of the eternal now, He is speaking to you with words of life and is sowing love in open hearts. Therefore, I am imploring you, apostles of my love, have open hearts always ready for mercy and forgiveness. According to my Son, always forgive your neighbors because in that way PEACE WILL BE IN YOU.

“My children, care for your soul because it alone is what truly belongs to you. You are forgetting the importance of family. A family does not need to be a place of suffering and pain, but a place of understanding and tenderness. Families who strive to live according to my Son live in mutual love. While He was still little, my Son would say to me that all people are His brothers. Therefore, remember, apostles of my love, that all people whom you meet are family to you, brothers, according to my Son.

“My children, do not waste time thinking about the future, worrying. May your only concern be how to live well every moment, according to my Son. AND THERE IT IS—PEACE FOR YOU! My children, do not ever forget to pray for your shepherds. Pray that they can accept all people as their children, that according to my Son, they may be spiritual fathers to them. Thank you” (Anniversary Message: Med. 10/2/2017).

THE AQUARIAN GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST was transcribed by Levi H. Dowling from the Akashic Records. This card is part of an ongoing series, embellished with Our Lady's beautiful ongoing messages at Medjugorje, which began with her message on November 2, 2016 (card 63). Her October message of peace marks 100 years since her apparitions at Fatima at which time she was crowned Queen of Peace (card 5). Her simple words mirror the text, speaking to us with words of life according to her Son when he was on earth, and now from the eternal He is still sowing love in open hearts. To have a future of peace you need not worry if you live according to Jesus. Pray for the peace and well-being of the families who are suffering and in pain from the recent natural and man-inflicted disasters. Pray for our shepherds to accept all of God's children with open hearts as one family. Section XVII: 144–147 “The Third Annual Epoch of the Christine Ministry of Jesus.”*

PEACE BEGINS IN THE FAMILY WITH FORGIVENESS, LOVE AND MERCY: Jesus, knowing he would soon lay † down his life for his brothers, wasted no time worrying about the future, but traveled with his apostles to all of the cities in Galilee to say farewell to his disciples who lived according to his words. He spoke to them with words of life, sowing love in their open hearts. To the crowd he spoke a parable about the importance of forgiveness, love and mercy in the family: “A wealthy man had two sons, the youngest grew tired of living at home and said, ‘Father, please divide your wealth and give me my portion; I want to seek my fortune in another land.’ The father did as he desired and the young man went to a foreign land, where he did not live well and was a profligate, wasting all of his wealth in the ways of sin. When he had nothing left, the only work he could find was tending to swine and to keep from starving he ate their pods. Finally he found himself, his heart opened and he said within his soul, ‘My father is a wealthy man with many servants who are fed well, while, I, his son, am feeding among swine. I do not hope to be accepted as his son, but I will not waste time worrying about the future and will go to him and confess my waywardness. I will tell him that I have not lived well and have been a profligate and lost my wealth in the ways of sin and am not worthy to be accepted as his son. I will ask him for a place among his servants, where I may live well.’”

“As he was returning home, his mother saw him while he was a great way off. A mother's praying heart can feel the first faint yearning of a wandering child. His father came and together they walked to meet their son. He pleaded for mercy and forgiveness and a servant's place, but his parents, filled with much love, were only concerned for his well-being. His father called to the servants and told them, ‘Bring him the finest robe and a ring of pure gold and prepare a great feast! His mother and I are glad! We were undone and thought that our son was dead, but he is here alive! A treasure that we thought was lost has been found!’ When the elder son returned home from working in his father's fields and saw the feast, he felt hurt and could not bear the thought of joining in their celebration. His parents implored him with simple words to forgive his brother's waywardness, but he would not. He said, ‘All of these years I have stayed at home and served you well every moment and have not transgressed even your most severe commands and yet you never made even a simple feast for me. But when your son, this profligate, who has never been concerned about living well and wasted half your wealth in the ways of sin, comes home because he could do nothing else, you make a wonderful feast!’ His father said, ‘My son, all we have is yours, you share in all our joys. Live in peace with your brother, show him understanding and tenderness. He may have been a profligate and consorted with courtesans and thieves, yet he is still your brother and our son, we are family.’” Then Jesus shouted, “There it is, peace for you! Those with open hearts will comprehend this parable. Forgive and show mercy, strive to live in mutual love because in that way peace will be in you!”

LIVE ACCORDING TO JESUS' WORDS THE FUTURE OF YOUR SOUL DEPENDS ON IT! A Pharisee asked Jesus, “Rabboni, we have heard you say that God's kingdom is at hand. The prophet Daniel said that God will form a kingdom, so I ask is this the kingdom you speak about and if so when will it come?” Jesus replied, “All of the prophets have spoken about God's kingdom, and yes it is at hand, but it cannot be seen with carnal eyes. It is a kingdom within the soul, where the pure in heart who live according to God are subjects of the king. Reform, give up your sins and be prepared! Open your heart and hear my words for the kingdom is at hand!”

Later Jesus spoke to his apostles about the future! “The seasons of the Son of man are past. The time will come when you will wish to see him come again. Men will say, ‘Here is Christ!’ ‘There is Christ!’ But do not be deceived for when the Son of man comes again, no man need  point the way for as lightning lights up heaven, so will the Son of man light up heaven and earth. But many generations will pass before the Son of man comes in power. It will be as it was in Noah's day, the people ate, drank, and were merry and did not worry about their future until Noah entered the ark; but by then it was too late, the flood gates in heaven  were opened and swept them all away. So also in the days of Lot the people went their way in sin, unconcerned. But when righteous Lot left the city, the earth beneath it shook, brimstone  fires fell from heaven, and the earth opened up and swallowed them all. So will it be when the Son of man comes in power. I charge you men, as I will charge men then, speaking to them from the eternal, do not worry about saving your wealth or you will lose your lives. Leave and do not look back on the crumbling walls of sin, remember Lot's wife! If you worry about saving your life, you will lose it. If you freely give your life in service to your neighbors, you will save it. Then comes the sifting time when two brothers will be asleep, one will be called, the other left; two sisters will be at work, one will be snatched away, the other left.” The apostles asked him to explain this. Jesus said, “Where the bread of heaven is you will find the pure in heart (card 42). Where the dead carcasses lie the birds of prey gather. But before this the Son of man will be betrayed by one of you and give his life in willing † sacrifice for his brothers. Then the Holy Breath will come in power and with open hearts, filled with the wisdom of love and mercy, you will sow peace throughout the earth.”
