

TO REIGN WITH THE KING BE FAITHFUL WITH YOUR MONEY AND KNOW HIM BETTER! Jesus spoke this parable to Zaccheus' guests to show them some good examples of those worthy to reign with the king: "An emperor made his vassal a king. Before he went to claim his kingdom, he sent ten trusted servants ahead of him. He gave each one a pound and said, 'Use my money on a good opportunity to gain more wealth for me before I come.' When the king came, he demanded a report from each man. The first man had gained nine pounds and the king said, 'Well done you good and faithful servant. Because you have been worthy in a little thing, I judge that you will be faithful in a greater thing, so you may reign over nine of my cities.' Likewise, the others came and had gained a profit for the king and each one was given cities to rule, according to what he had gained. But one of them came and returned the pound with no profit at all and said to the king, 'I know you to be an austere man. I was afraid to anger you by losing your money, so I hid it in a secret place and here it is.' The king said vehemently, 'You lazy, unprofitable servant! You should have known me better. I expect every man to do his best. If you did not trust your judgment in the marts of trade, you should have put my money out to gain interest.' He ordered his chief steward, 'Take his pound and give it to him who diligently earned nine.' Then Jesus said to the guests, "If you use the money given to you on a good opportunity, you will gain more wealth; if you hide it, you will lose what you have."

BLIND BARTIMAEUS—AN EXAMPLE OF FAITH AND LOVE: As Jesus left Jericho, a blind beggar sat by the road. When he heard the crowd and was told that Jesus was passing by, he shouted, "Lord Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on poor blind Bartimaeus!" The people tried to quiet him, but he shouted louder, "Son of David have mercy on poor Bartimaeus!" Jesus said, "Bring him to me." As they were bringing him, he suddenly threw his cloak aside and ran to Jesus. Jesus asked, "What will you have Bartimaeus?" He said, "Rabboni, open my eyes so I can see." Jesus said, "Receive your sight, your faith has made you whole." When he could see, he shouted from the fullness of his heart: "Praise God, born of God—One and Triune!"

JOY REIGNS! THE KING OF LOVE AND PEACE HAS COME! Jesus arrived in Bethany before Passover. On the Sabbath he taught in a synagogue. The next day he told his apostles, "Today I will go into Jerusalem, but do not be afraid my time has not yet come. Two of you go to Bethphage, where you will find an ass tied to a tree, bring her to me." When they brought the ass, they put their cloaks on her and Jesus rode into Jerusalem. The crowds along the way spread their garments and branches in the road, shouting, "Blessed is the king, who comes in the Name of God! Peace on earth, good will toward all men!" The children placed a garland of sweet flowers on his head and everyone shouted, "Hail the king! Long live the king! The throne of David shall be built again!" Some Pharisees told Jesus to rebuke them. He replied, "If they hold their peace, the stones will cry out!" As he drew near Jerusalem with sorrow he said, "O Jerusalem, the holy city of the Jews, yours was the glory of the Lord, but you have spurned him. Your eyes are closed, you cannot see the king. The kingdom of the Lord of heaven and earth has come and you cannot comprehend it. Your enemies will overcome you because today you spurn the offer of grace of the God of heaven." When he came into Jerusalem with the crowd joy reigned! The people asked who he was and the crowd shouted, "This is the king, the prophet, the priest of God, the God-man from Galilee!" Then he went to the temple, it was filled with children praising him, "Hosanna to the king! The son of David is the king! All hail the king!" The Pharisees angrily said to Jesus, "Do you hear these children?" He replied, "Your prophet said out of the mouth of babes God has perfected praise!"

THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING, CELEBRATED BY SOME CHRISTIANS IN OCTOBER, OTHERS IN NOVEMBER, HONORS JESUS, THE CHRIST AND KING, WHO WAS THE GOD-MAN—DIVINE AND HUMAN—GOD, BORN OF GOD—ONE AND TRIUNE. FOR MANY IT ENDS THEIR LITURGICAL YEAR.

"DEAR CHILDREN: I am calling you to be prayer in this time of grace. You all have problems, afflictions, sufferings and lack of peace. May saints be models to you and an encouragement for holiness. God will be near you and you will be renewed in seeking through your personal conversion, their faith will be hope to you and joy will begin to reign in your hearts! Thank you for having responded to my call" (Med. 10/25/17).

JESUS, THE KING OF LOVE—GOD, BORN OF GOD, ONE AND TRIUNE! Saints—Models of Holiness, Examples of Good Sustaining the World!

“DEAR CHILDREN: As I am looking at you gathered around me, your mother, I see many pure souls—many of my children, who are seeking love and consolation, but no one is offering it to them. I also see those who are doing evil—because they do not have good examples, they have not come to know my Son. The good, which is silent and is spread through pure souls, is the strength which sustains this world! There is much sin, but there is also love. My Son is sending me to you, the mother, who is the same for everyone, that I may teach you to love, to comprehend that you are brothers, He desires to help you.

“Apostles of my love, a living desire of faith and love is sufficient and my Son will accept it. But you must be worthy, you must have good will and open hearts. My Son enters into open hearts. I, as a mother, desire that you may all the better come to know my Son—GOD, BORN OF GOD—to come to know the greatness of His love, which you need so much. He accepted your sins upon Himself and obtained redemption for you and in return He asked that you love each other!”

“My Son is love! He loves all people without difference, all people of all countries and of all nations. If you, my children, would live the love of my Son, His Kingdom would already be on earth! Therefore, apostles of my love, pray, pray that my Son and His love may be all the closer to you, so that you may be an example of love and may help all those who have not come to know my Son. Never forget that my Son—ONE AND TRIUNE—loves you. Love your shepherds and pray for them” (Med. 11/2/17).

THE AQUARIAN GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST was transcribed by Levi H. Dowling from the Akashic Records. This card is part of an ongoing series adapted to Mary’s ongoing messages at Medjugorje. The series began a year ago with her message on November 2, 2016, when she declared, “I was a chalice of the God-man” and called us to be chalices of the true and pure love of Jesus, instruments through which all those who have not come to know the love of God could comprehend it, accept it and be saved (card 63). Her messages fit easily into the text and bring you closer to Jesus, who continues to send her to us to teach us to be prayer and to not forget to be good examples of love to all those who have not come to know Him so that His Kingdom of love would reign on earth in our hearts NOW! Our Lady sees the lack of peace around us, the problem of war looming with North Korea and many are seeking consolation after suffering from recent natural and man-inflicted disasters. Mary, the Queen of Peace, is offering us the only way to peace—love each other to be worthy of the redemption that God gave us through Jesus, God, born of God—One and Triune. Section XVII: 148–151 “The Third Annual Epoch of the Christine Ministry of Jesus.”*

THE APOSTLES—EXAMPLES OF A LIVING DESIRE OF FAITH AND LOVE: Jesus and the apostles were in the silence in a home in Araba. A messenger told Jesus privately, “Lord, your friend Lazarus in Bethany is suffering from an affliction and is near death. His sisters urge you to come quickly.” But Jesus told the apostles, “Lazarus has a problem, he has gone to sleep and I must go and wake him up.” They asked, “Why do you need to go and wake him up, he will wake up on his own?” He answered, “Because it is the sleep of death, he is dead!” Jesus waited two days and then said, “The hour has come for me to go to Bethany.” His disciples pleaded with him not to go, saying “The Jews are watching for your return so they can take your life!” Jesus told them, “Men cannot take my life until I hand it to them. When that time comes, I will accept it and lay down my life myself. That time is near, God knows best so I must go.” Thomas said, “Then we will all accept it and go and offer up our lives and die with you!”

MARTHA AND RUTH—MODELS OF HOLINESS, EXAMPLES OF FAITH AND HOPE: Martha, Ruth and Mary were at home, many had gathered around them to offer their love and consolation. A man announced that Jesus was at the village gate. Mary did not hear the news, but Martha and Ruth went to meet him. Martha said, “Lord, you are too late, Lazarus is dead. If you had been here sooner, he would not have died. But even now I know that you have power over death that by the Word (card 79) you may cause life to rise from death.” Jesus said, “Lazarus will live again.” Martha said, “I know he will live again when all the dead rise.” Jesus said, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever has faith in me even if he is dead will live again! Whoever is alive and has a living desire of love and faith in me, it will be sufficient, I will accept it, they will not die. Do you believe me?” Martha responded, “Lord, we believe you are the God-man come to manifest the Christ, the King, God, born of God—One and Triune!”

LAZARUS—AN EXAMPLE OF CHRIST’S RESURRECTION: Jesus told them to tell their sister Mary, his mother and the prophetess Mariam, who had come to offer their love and consolation, that he was there. When the women came, Mary said, “Lord, why did you take so long? If you had been here sooner, my brother would not have died.” Later Jesus and the guests went to the tomb, it had a stone in the entry and he told the men to remove it. Martha said, “Lord, he has been dead for four days and his body will stink from decay.” Jesus said, “Martha, I told you that you would see the glory of the Lord.” When they rolled the stone away, they witnessed that Lazarus’ flesh did not stink and had not decayed. Jesus prayed, “Father-God, I thank you for hearing my prayers. I ask you to make strong the Word of power in me so these people will know that you have sent me and that I am yours and you are mine.” Then he spoke the Word in a voice only pure souls could comprehend and said, “Lazarus awake!” When he arose, the people were amazed and confessed their faith in Jesus, saying: “Lord, we believe you are the God-man come to manifest the Christ, the King, God, born of God—One and Triune!”

NOVEMBER 1 AND 2—AKA THE DAY OF THE DEAD—IS A TIME OF GRACE WHEN IN PRAYER WE DRAW NEAR OUR DECEASED FAMILY MEMBERS, WHO CONSOLE AND ENCOURAGE US, RENEWING OUR HOPE AND JOY!

JESUS ACCEPTED OUR SINS, SACRIFICING HIMSELF TO OBTAIN OUR REDEMPTION: A few of the witnesses went to Jerusalem and told some Pharisees. They responded, “If we do not stop him in his works, everyone will see him as king and through the Romans he will take the throne then we will lose our position and power.” The Pharisees and priests gathered in council, seeking a plan to put Jesus to death. Caiaphas, the high priest, said, “Do you men not know the law that at this time of year we may sacrifice one life to save our nation?” He did not realize he was a prophet. The time had come for Jesus to accept our sins, offering himself as a sacrifice, not only to obtain redemption for their nation, but the release from sin for all people of all nations. From then on they gathered daily, maturing an evil plan to put him to death!

CAIAPHAS IS REFERRING TO GOD’S LAW REGULATING THE DAY OF ATONEMENT IN THE FALL (YOM KIPPUR). AS AN EXAMPLE OF CHRIST, A LOT WAS CAST BETWEEN TWO GOATS, ONE ACCEPTED THE SINS OF THE NATION AND WAS SACRIFICED; THE OTHER WAS RELEASED, CARRYING THEIR SINS AWAY (LEV. 16: 6–10).

ZACCHEUS—AN EXAMPLE OF FAITH AND GOOD WILL: Jesus left for Samaria. In the spring he went to Jericho ten days before Passover. When he entered the city, a crowd gathered around him. A wealthy tax collector tried to see him, but he was short so he climbed a tree and waited for him to pass by. Jesus saw him waiting and said, “Zaccheus, come down and I will abide with you today.” The crowd shouted, “For shame! Jesus goes to lodge with Zaccheus, a sinner and tax collector.” But Jesus did not care for he knew different, he knew he was a worthy man of faith. Zaccheus said, “Lord, I always try to do good with my money. I give half my goods to my poor brothers. If I wrong a brother, I make peace by paying him four fold.” Jesus said, “Your good will and faith are known to God and his blessings abide with you and your house.”
