

TO BE FREE OF SATAN: LOVE—RETURN TO TRUSTING GOD—PERMIT HIM TO SPEAK TO YOUR HEART!

Joshua asked, "Who are your people?" The priest, pointing to a map, said, "I have jurisdiction over all the people in this territory. No one is to speak to them without my permission." Joshua, angered, said, "They are not your people; they are God's children and are free. Shepherds like you have stripped them of the freedom and joy they should experience as His children, returning them to the status of slaves, no longer free to trust God and follow their own consciences, not permitting them to listen to their inner voices, or even the voice of God. Men like you are so taken up with your own authority that you resent people even talking about God without your permission. Men like you have destroyed the good Name of Jesus' message (repair it/card 18). You have bound people's lives in shackles and fear of punishment, not because you care for them, but to protect your own authority. Jesus taught his apostles to love and serve, but you have never loved your people. You rule them and force them to serve you." The priest was livid; he knew Joshua knew him inside and out, although they never met. He was afraid of him and wanted to get rid of him. He countered sharply, "Young man, this discussion is ended! I don't know what you're up to, but I cannot image it is anything good. I would prefer that you did not attend my church every again. I intend to tell my people they are not permitted to listen to you." The priest ushered Joshua to the door, then went to his room and slammed the door!

WALK WITH JESUS (in public processions/card 18), comfort Him in moments of peacelessness!

Joshua walked down the street. Some children were playing and ran over and walked down the street with him, telling him about trivial things that were important to them. As Joshua listened, he forgot about his own hurt. He told them, "You are God's children and are free. Do not permit anyone on Earth to take that freedom from you!" Father Kavanaugh, enraged, paced in his room, contemplating what to do about this impudent fanatic he could not control. He called the bishop and said, "There is a man in our parish, a newcomer, who has a powerful influence over people. He is turning them against the Church. If we don't stop him, I fear he will undermine my position and do irreparable damage to the faith of the people. I tried to talk to him nicely, but he insulted me." The bishop, listening closely, said, "You are no doubt talking about Joshua." "Yes, he is the one!" "What can I do about him?" the bishop asked. "You might call him in and talk to him," the priest urged. "What makes you think he will listen to me?" "I don't know," the priest said, "but it will show him he can't get away with his impudence." The bishop asked, "If he doesn't listen, then what do we do? His influence is not limited to Auburn. As a result of his television interview, we have received letters from people all across the area." Father Kavanaugh insisted, "That's all the more reason to stop him now, before it's too late. He is dangerous! I fear if people listen to his ideas, our churches will be empty." The bishop said, "Do you think he's that important?" The priest persisted, "Talk to him, listen for yourself, you'll change your mind." "Ok, I'll talk to him," agreed the bishop.

IN MOMENTS OF PEACELESSNESS TRUST GOD AND TRANSFIX ON JESUS' FACE!

When Joshua got home, he walked to the meadow. The sun was hiding behind the clouds and everything seemed silent. He knelt motionless, transfixed, as if his soul had momentarily left his body. Tears flowed down his cheeks, then stopped as a ray of light shone through the clouds, lighting up his face, transforming his delicate features into radiant beauty. He knelt there silent in profound thought about his situation. Then his face relaxed, tense muscles melted into peaceful calm as a faint smile hinted at a message only he heard as he permitted God to speak to his heart: Do not be afraid! In moments of peacelessness know what is true—My love and trust!

Do not be afraid! In moments of peacelessness know what is true—My love and trust!

SATAN IS REIGNING, ONLY ACTS OF LOVE WILL FREE US! In Times of Peacelessness and Renunciation Know What Is True!

“DEAR CHILDREN: My Son, as God, always looked above time. I, as His mother, through Him, see in time. I see beautiful and sad things. But I see that there is still love, and that it needs doing for it to be known. My children, you cannot be happy if you do not love each other, if you do not have love in every situation and at every moment of your life. Also, I, as a mother, am coming to you through love—to help you to come to know true love—to come to know my Son! This is why I am calling you, always anew to thirst all the more for love, faith and hope. The only spring from which you can drink is trust in God, my Son. My children, in moments of peacelessness and renunciation you just seek the face of my Son. You just live His words and do not be afraid! Pray and love with sincere feelings, with good works, and help so that the world may change and that MY HEART may WIN! Like my Son, I am also saying to you: Love each other because without love there is no salvation. Thank you for having responded to my last call” (Med. 3/18/20).

JOSHUA: A PARABLE FOR TODAY is a National Best Seller by Father Joseph F. Girzone, a Catholic priest. This series began with Ark Box 6 and card 108. To write the cards I listen to my inner voices and abridge the book and incorporate Mary’s current messages from Medjugorje and current Catholic calendar and world events into it. It is essential to know that the first inner voice you hear in every situation and moment is God’s voice, followed by Satan’s voice of doubt and fear. Decide to trust the first voice! On Friday, March 13th, 2020, President Trump, after listening to the doubts and fears of lawmakers and public health officials over the coronavirus situation, decided to declare a national emergency and announced the lock down of America, closing all “non-essential businesses” and not permitting “meetings” deemed “non-essential.” On March 18th Mary announced in her annual message she decided to stop giving messages on the 2nd. On the 25th she announced: “Satan is reigning!” Father Girzone wrote the parable to convey a prophetic message: If Jesus lived today, would the churches—His houses of worship—be drinking from the spring of His trust or would they be classified as “non-essential businesses” and their “meetings” deemed “non-essential,” permitting Satan to reign? In the parable the Heavenly Father sends Jesus (Joshua) to Earth to again show us how to be free of Satan. He is an outspoken critic against Church practices. Some gossips reported him to their pastor over his words; now he is facing his last days! Chapter 14 follows.

SATAN IS REIGNING, destroying lives, sowing seeds of doubt, fear and hatred, only acts of love will free us (card 18). As Joshua worked on his carpentry jobs, he thought about the talk he was to give at the synagogue on Friday. He thought about the man who had accused him last week of being guilty of all the sins Christians had committed against Jews, locking them down in prison camps and killing them. He wanted reciprocity. But Joshua embraced the man and asked him for forgiveness for all the sins Christians had committed against him, his family, and all Jews. The man became overwhelmed by his compassion—his act of love—and threw his arms around him and his bitterness and rage left his troubled spirit. It reminded Joshua of the man who had a speech impediment centuries ago. He drove the devil out of him. Devils were more visible then. Today they are subtle, disguised as advanced, compassionate thinkers, who want to revolutionize society, sowing seeds of doubt about all that is sacred; or as religious leaders, inciting their followers to fear and hatred and even murder in God’s Name. He thought about his friend Marcia, who came to him the other day to speak to him about her work at the United Nations, and all the good she was trying to do among so many with dubious objectives. She was a pure and innocent dove among a pack of vultures, deviously maneuvering politics.

IN 1594 MARY REVEALED TO A NUN IN ECUADOR THAT SECRET MASONIC SECTS, WHOM SHE CALLED “THE SATANIC LODGES,” WOULD CAST THE SHADOW OF DARKNESS, DECEPTION, DOUBT, AND FEAR OVER THE WORLD IN OUR TIME, OPPRESSING US BY CONTROLLING CHURCHES, PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SCHOOLS, GOVERNMENTS, CORPORATIONS, AND ORGANIZATIONS (CARD 93). WHO—THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION—IS A MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL. THEY DECIDED THAT THE CORONAVIRUS IS A PANDEMIC. BUT IS IT A “TRUE PANDEMIC” OR NOT?

A young boy brought Joshua a message from the Catholic church. Father Kavanaugh wanted to talk to him on Monday. Joshua knew that some gossips had been talking about him to the pastor. On Sunday he attended the Episcopal church. He had carved a wood statue of the Apostle Peter for them. Father Darby offered the Mass and spoke about the statue, which he had installed next to the altar. The liturgical service was technically perfect, but worship rang mostly hallow. Joshua found it difficult to pray. Afterward, Father Darby’s chauffeur saw him and introduced him as the artist who had carved the statue. The people were nice to him and asked if he liked their service. He replied, “The ritual was beautiful and some people were deeply absorbed in the worship service. Their worship is essential; it is the source of blessing to the community.” Father Darby thought Joshua was inferior to him and nodded curtly. Phil, his friend from the lumber mill, invited him for breakfast at his house. Phil knew some people were talking about him and he was concerned and wanted to reassure him that most people weren’t listening to the rumors and truly loved him. Joshua said, “I can read the signs of the times and can tell how events are shaping up. Don’t be concerned, I am confident of the future.” As Joshua walked home, he felt preoccupied with an inner world, where a drama was unfolding. It was as if he was waiting for things to happen. He knew he could influence those events, but he chose not to. He permitted himself to become an actor on a stage set by others.

On Monday morning he went to the rectory for his meeting with Father Kavanaugh. The receptionist took him into a large well-decorated office, where Father Kavanaugh was seated at his mahogany desk. The priest said, “Young man, I have heard that you have taken it upon yourself to teach religion, telling people that religion today is not what Jesus intended, and that religious leaders are not much different from the religious leaders in Christ’s day.” Joshua said, “Jesus never intended that religion become what it is today. He was free and preached that as God’s children, people are free, not slaves. He intended that his leaders be humble and allow people to enjoy being free. But not many religious leaders feel comfortable with people being free because they enjoy exercising authority over them. They like to make rules and laws that burden people’s lives. Then, using fear, decree that if you do not obey them, it is a sin, punishable by God.” Irritated, the priest said, “How do you know what Jesus intended?” Joshua responded calmly, “Aren’t the Gospels clear in showing Jesus’ attitudes on these things?” Father Kavanaugh objected, “What Jesus taught is one thing, but it is another thing for a layman with no training in theology to criticize the Church’s practices of religion.” Joshua countered, “I know what I say is true and the Scriptures are solid evidence. You know that Jesus preached humility and told his apostles they were to exercise authority with gentleness and meekness. He even washed their feet to impress upon them the importance of serving people, not ruling them.” Angered, Father Kavanaugh responded, “I don’t like your attitude and I resent the way you presume to preach to me. I also resent you talking to my people, and I will not permit it!”

WHAT IS TRUE? THE CDC ESTIMATES 22,000-55,000 PEOPLE WILL DIE IN THE U.S. THIS YEAR FROM SEASONAL FLU. AS OF APRIL THE COVID-19 DEATH ESTIMATE IS 50,000 PEOPLE IN THE U.S. WHO SAYS: THE CORONAVIRUS HAS A UNIQUE CHARACTERISTIC IN THAT UNLIKE A FLU VIRUS “IT CAN BE CONTAINED.” A TRUE FLU PANDEMIC CANNOT BE CONTAINED, KILLING MILLIONS. THE CLASSICAL DEFINITION OF A PANDEMIC IS AN “EPIDEMIC OCCURRING WORLDWIDE,” WHICH MEANS PANDEMICS CAN BE SAID TO OCCUR WITH SEASONAL FLUS. “A TRUE FLU PANDEMIC OCCURS WHEN SIMULTANEOUS TRANSMISSION TAKES PLACE WORLDWIDE” AND “OUT OF SEASON” (WHO BULLETIN MARCH 3, 2020).
